2.2 The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that arise out of or by reason of any action taken or not taken by the Employer under the terms of this Article.

ARTICLE 3 - HOURS OF WORK

3.1 The regular work week shall be from Monday through Sunday. The regular work day shall consist of eight (8) to twelve (12) hours depending on shift structures. One and one-half (1½) times the hourly rate shall be paid under the following conditions:

3.1.1. after eight (8) hours in any day,

3.1.2. After forty (40) hours in any week,

3.3 Any employee who absents himself unjustifiably during his regular work week shall not be paid the overtime rate on the sixth (6th) and seventh (7th) day, until he shall have first worked in the week in which such absence occurred the same number of hours as were scheduled for him during that week. (Absence due to an industrial injury shall be considered as justifiable for purposes of this paragraph.)

3.4 Based on production needs for continuous operation and at the discretion of the Employer, the Employer may implement a shift schedule change.

3.5 The shift change may be implemented or ceased upon one (1) week's notice from the Employer.

3.6 Holidays shall be paid at eight (8) hours straight time.

3.7 When no employees are available for overtime work on a voluntary basis, employees with the necessary skills in the job classification with the lowest seniority will be required to work the overtime.

3.8.1 There shall be a twelve (12) hour differential of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for the night shift.

ARTICLE 4 - MINIMUM SHIFT

4.1 An employee regularly scheduled and reporting for work in person, then sent home due to lack of work, shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours pay at his straight time hourly rate including shift differential if applicable, unless lack of work is due to an act of God or any other circumstances beyond the control of the company or unless company has attempted to notify employee not to report at least one (1) hour in advance of shift and provided employee has kept current information regarding telephone contact.

4.2 In the event of mechanical, power failure or process breakdown during the first (1st) four (4) hours of the work day, the Employer may send the employees home. In such event, each such employee shall be paid not less than four (4) hours pay at his straight time hourly rate, including shift differential if applicable. 4.3 A maintenance employee called back to work after leaving the plant, at the end of his/her work shift, or called to work on a non-scheduled work day, shall receive, in such instances, a minimum of four (4) hours of pay, at his/her current hourly rate. These hours shall be considered as time worked for the purposes of calculating overtime.

ARTICLE 5 - SENIORITY

5.1 The Employer shall establish an accurate Seniority List. Such list shall be available for inspection by an authorized Union Representative and the Employer shall furnish the Union with an accurate copy of the same every month. This list shall include first name, last name, social security number, hire date, and termination date. This list shall also include temporary employees.

5.2 Seniority shall be defined as the length of time that an employee has been in the employ of the Employer since the date of his most recent hire.

5.2.1 In the event more than one employee is hired on the same day, the employee with the date of birth closer to the beginning of the year will have the greater seniority.

5.3 Employees shall be considered on probation for the first (1st) sixty (60) calendar days of employment; thereafter, their names shall be added to the Seniority list, and they shall acquire seniority dating back to their date of hire. In the event that the probation period is broken for any reason other than discharge and if that break is longer than thirty (30) calendar days, then the probationary period may be extended for the work days missed up to a total probationary period of sixty (60) calendar days.

5.4 Departmental seniority shall be followed with employees having less than one (1) year of seniority with Employer. Employees having more than one (1) year of seniority with the Employer shall have plant wide seniority, subject to the following conditions and criteria: Physical fitness, skill, experience and ability to perform the job without a long period of training as determined by the Plant Manager or the Plant Manager’s designate.

5.5 Whenever business conditions reduce the amount of work available and in the judgment of the Employer such work reduction is of temporary duration, the Employer shall divide work as equitably as possible for a period not to exceed thirty (30) calendar days, considering physical fitness, skill and ability to perform the job, as determined by the Plant Manager or the Plant Manager’s designate, without a long training period. Then, thereafter, departmental and plant wide seniority as herein provided shall be followed.

5.6 Promotions: In the event a vacancy occurs in a higher classification, the Employer will fill the vacancy by a promotion from within. The Employer shall follow the following procedure:

5.6.1 The vacancy shall be posted for a period of ten (10) calendar days. A copy of each posting will be provided to the Union at the time of the initial posting. During this period, employees who wish to be considered for the vacancy will submit their names to the Employer. Where knowledge, skill, ability, experience and physical conditions are relatively equal in the judgment of the Employer, the Employer shall appoint the senior employee of those applying. In the event there is no present employee who is qualified to fill a vacancy, then the Employer may fill such vacancy by hire from any other source. The Employer shall determine the qualification of any employee under this Article in a fair and non-discriminatory manner. The employee shall be given thirty (30) days to qualify for the job. If he fails to qualify, he shall then be transferred back to his original classification or a classification of equal pay. Any dispute arising under this Article shall be subject to the Grievance Procedure. In the event of multiple openings on a shift or shifts in the same classification, one (1) job may be bid on a shift transfer basis.

5.7 Seniority shall be terminated under the following circumstances:

However, in an emergency situation where conditions require that the employee report immediately, the recall limitations herein provided shall be reduced to two (2) days, or forty-eight (48) hours. An employee who is unable to report within said period shall maintain his seniority rights. The Employer shall call said employee for the next opening, consistent with the provisions of this Article.

5.7.6 Falsifying reason for leave of absence.

5.8 Employees on layoff will keep the Employer informed of any change of address that may occur during such layoff. Where an employee has failed to notify the Employer of a change of address, the Employer shall not be required to re-employ such employee who fails to report for work or recall because the notice of such recall was sent to the wrong address.

5.9 In the event overtime work shall be performed, the Employer shall, wherever practicable, distribute such overtime work equally among employees, subject to seniority and required classifications for production requirements.

5.10 Transfers: If an employee is transferred due to a decision made by the Employer to a lower rated classification, then he should receive the higher rate for a period of ten (10) days worked. If the employee requests a transfer to a lower rated classification, he will receive the lower rate immediately upon transfer.
