Stater Bros. Markets Further Extends Hourly Employees $2/hr. Wage Incentive

Wage incentive extension recognizes workers' continued dedication

San Bernardino, California (May 12, 2020) – Stater Bros. Markets remains committed to providing essential services to our local communities and we are proud of the dedication the Stater Bros. Family has displayed during the COVID-19 pandemic. In recognition of their extraordinary efforts, we are pleased to extend the $2/hr. wage incentive for all hours worked for all of the company's hourly employees that work in the stores, distribution, transportation, corporate offices, and construction through Sunday, May 31, 2020.

"The Stater Bros. Family remains committed to serving the needs of Southern California shoppers," said Stater Bros. CEO Pete Van Helden. "Every day we are reminded of the unwavering commitment of our employees to the communities and shoppers we serve. We are extremely proud of their dedication and this wage incentive is a recognition of their continued, tremendous efforts," Van Helden concluded.

Stater Bros. Markets is currently operating daily from 7:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m., with 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays dedicated exclusively for senior shoppers.
